Select Poetry.

THE ROSY LIGHT IS DAWNING.

The rosy light is dawning
Upon the mountain's brow;
It is the festive morning,
Arise and pay thy vow.
Lift up thy voice to heaven
In sacred praise and prayer,
While unto thee is given
The light of life to share.

O see those waters streaming
In crystal purity,
While earth with verdure teeming,
Gives rupture to the eye.
Let rivers of salvation,
In larger currents flow,
Tell every tribe and nation
Their healing virtues know.

The rosy light is dawning
Upon the mountain's brow;
It is the festive morning,
Arise and pay thy vow.
Lift up thy voice to heaven
In sacred praise and prayer,
While unto thee is given
The light of life to share.

ADDRESS

TO THE

Republican Party

The Republican Congressional Committee on the Fall Campaign.

WHO SHALL CONTROL THE NEXT HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE OF REPUBLICANISM—THE DUTY OF THE PARTY.

To the Republicans of the United States:

The executive and legislative departments of the National Government, and two-thirds of the State governments, have been committed to your keeping. Such power carries with it grave responsibilities. The people, as is their right, will be held to a strict accountability for the exercise of this great trust. Elections are soon to be held for the national House of Representatives. These elections will determine the political complexion of the popular branch of Congress. They will, too, determine the political character of several State Governments. And these results will be accepted as the verdict of the people upon the ideas, principles and policies of the Republican party, and upon the measures and character of the national administration. To these responsibilities, and to the gravity of these issues, your thoughtful consideration is invoked.

In the present juncture it behooves the Republican party not to forget its origin, nor its history. Amid the difficulties that beset it, and the responsibilities and labors which the needs of the country in the new and untried condition of affairs imposes, it should remember that it was born of the nation's necessities, and thus far it has grandly met the exigencies for which it was formed. Having passed triumphantly through three great eras of its history, it is now summoned to enter upon its fourth. Gathering, therefore, inspiration from past success, it should grapple hopefully and with unshrinking confidence with the duties of the present and near future.

Recurring to their origin, Republicans will remember, when the land was the theatre of a stern and irrepressible conflict between the demons of slavery and caste, and the spirit of liberty and equality, when the slave power held great interests and powerful organizations in its grasp, and ruled the nation with imperial sway, that the founders of the party instructed by passing events, with convictions deepened and zeal quickened by the teachings of history and holy writ, and inspired by the deathless words of the patriots, statesmen heroes of our earlier times, rose to the exigencies of the hour, opposed the haughty ambitions, the maddening passions, the cruel prejudices and the disorganizing theories of the nominating majority, and, although long overborne by numbers, still struggled on amid jeers, insults, mobs, blows and assassinations till under the lead of Abraham Lincoln they achieved success and grasped the scepter of political power.

Entering upon its second era, appalling responsibilities at once arose. The slave masters, in the pride and arrogance of power, instantly plunged the nation into the fire and blood of civil war. But the Republican party rose with the crisis. It raised money in unstinted measure, organized vast armies, created powerful navies, fought bloody battles, crushed the most gigantic rebellion of all recorded history, and saved the nation's life. It was then amid the clash of arms, that the Republican party saw that slavery was the relentless and unappeasable foe of the country, was the inspiration, the heart and soul of that war, and that its death would be the annihilation of the rebellion, the unity of the Republic and the development of free institutions. Against cowardly fears, selfish instincts and unreasoning passions and prejudices it pronounced the doom of that hideous and horrid system of human bondage, though it was upheld by the aggregated interests of three thousand millions of dollars, hedged about by the accumulated passions and prejudices, prides and ambitions of seven generations, and intrenched within the social, political, and ecclesiastical organizations and affiliations of life. By a series of executive and legislative acts, it broke the chains and lifted from the depths a chattel blood up to the summits of manhood four and a half millions of hapless bondsmen, and stood them before the nations with their riven fetters in one hand, and their title deeds to freedom in the other.

The war ended, the rebellion subdued, the bondsmen emancipated, the Republican party entered upon the third era of its eventful history. Though conquered by arms the rebels did not accept the just, humane and generous ideas of the victors, nor did they return to their proper allegiance and loyalty to the government, but still bemoaning the "lost cause" they remained unsubdued in will and unrepentant in spirit and purpose. Though made free the bondmen were homeless, without property, without employment, subject to the cruel laws against free people of color which had always disgraced Southern legislation, and in the midst of a people exasperated by defeat, and maddened by their loss of power still longer to uphold and oppress. Property was swept away, industry disorganized, society disintegrated, and States were without lawful governments.

Upon the Republican party devolved the task of reconstruction. To its intrinsic difficulties were added the intense hostility of the ex-rebels, the lingering prejudices long engendered by the slave system, the timid counsels of conservatism and the apostacy of the Executive. Great interests and powerful combinations sought to so reconstruct the South as to place the power in the hands of the late slaveholding class and leave the helpless freedmen in the abject condition of political serfdom. Seldom in history has there been imposed upon a body of men a work of greater magnitude or difficulty. The Republicans might have shrunk from and avoided it. They were sorely tempted to do so. But they resisted the temptation of official power and patronage, the threats of Executive dictation and all other adverse influences, and with sublime fidelity and courage addressed themselves to the herculean task.

To aid in reorganizing disordered industries, caring for, protecting and instructing the emancipated bondmen in the new duties of their changed condition, the Republicans established the Freedmen's Bureau, which by the wise expenditure of a few millions of dollars, did an incalculable work for order, peace and the rehabilitation of Southern society. To reconstruct rebellious States on the solid basis of equal rights, they gave suffrage to the freedmen in the reconstructed measures. To secure citizenship and civil rights to a wronged and hated race, they proposed and adopted the Fourteenth Amendment, and enacted the bill of Civil Rights. To establish by irreversible guarantee equal political rights and privileges, they adopted the Fifteenth Amendment, and as a crowning act for freedom they provided by law for the enforcement of these amendments thus newly enshrined within the Constitution. Thus, the Republicans against the sternest opposition, against misrepresentation, against appalling obstacles, have struggled on until the rebel States, reconstructed on the basis of impartial liberty, have been restored, and the sublime doctrines of the Declaration of Independence made assured and practical realities. In the progress of the ages it has been given to few, in any form or by any modes, to achieve work so vast, so grand, so beneficent, so sure to be recorded by history, and applauded and remembered by coming generations.

Having achieved this grand work—having passed through these three eras of its history—The Republican party, entering on its fourth era, was summoned to deal with the question relating to the national debt—the currency finances and taxation—to reforms in the military, naval and Indian service, and whatever remaining burdens and legacies were left by the war. Concerning these questions are apparent diversities, of interests, and real differences of opinion. The solutions of some of them are embarressed by grave difficulties. They require time as well as financial skill and practical statesmanship, for their adjustment. Differences of opinion on matters so recondite and complex, in an organization embracing so many men of large intelligence, trained to habits of independent thought, expression and modes of action, are inevitable. They are indeed to be expected and desired, for, from such freedom of discussion, truth is elicited, and proper modes of action are deduced. The man, therefore, who stood so firmly while in a minority, amid the denunciations, arrogance and scorn of power; the men who met the stern exigencies of civil war with such heroic courage, who assailed the slave power and extirpated the slave system; themen who grappled so successfully with the perplexing and pregnant issues of reconstruction, lifted helpless freemen up to citizenship, exalted them to the heights of civil and political rights and privileges, and made the nation free in fact as well as in name, should not shrink from the less momentous and less embarrassing questions before them.

Patriotism, principle, the continued existence, reputation and renown of the Republican party, and a due sense of self-respect and pride of character demand that the Republican party now, as in the past, should have faith in its capacity to carry forward to completion reforms so auspiciously begun. It came into being as an organization of reform and progress, and should be every ready

THE REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL CONFERENCE.

On the first day of September, the conferees from each county in this Senatorial District met in convention in Lewistown. The conferees from Centre were John Irwin Jr., John T. Johnson and G. M. Yocum Esq. We cannot give the names of the conferees from the other counties for the reason that we have mislaid our notes containing the names of conferees and proceedings of the convention.

The convention met and organized at 11 o'clock A. M. by, calling Judge McCune of Blair County to the chair. After completing the organization the conference adjourned until 2 o'clock P. M. In the meantime conferees and outsiders—the friends of the candidates from all the counties, repaired to the National House and partook of a most excellent dinner prepared for the occasion by the gentlemanly proprietor of that house.

At 2 o'clock the conference reassembled, and balloted ten times the conferees of each county voung for their own man. This was slow business and to some of the conferees appeared like childs play, so a motion was made for a recess, of fifteen minutes for purposes of consultation. The motion prevailed and the recess had. During the recess the friends of the respective candidates were very industrious, working earnestly and energetically, but getting very little satisfaction from any of the conferees. We thought they were a very close mouthed set of men.

The recess being over the conference reassembled and balloted some ten or fifteen times with the same results as before. A motion was then made to ballot for two candidates at the same time. The motion prevailed. The first ballot under this rule Wm. P. Wilson, Esq. had 9 votes. The second ballot 9 votes and the third ballot he had 11 votes giving him the necessary majority and one vote to spare. His nomination was then declared unanimous. Upon the next ballot D. Walker Woods was nominated, and his nomination declared unanimous. The best of order and kind and friendly feeling existed through out the entire session of the conference. All were well pleased with the nominees, declaring that we had a strong ticket and that they would all work with a will for its success.

WM. P. WILSON, ESQ.

Of this gentleman—the unanimous choice of Centre county and of the Senatorial Conference, for the office of State Senator, it is unnecessary for us to speak, for he is intimately and favorably known by all the people of Centre county. To the people of the district, however, we can say and safely say that you have selected one of our very best and purest men for this important office. Mr. Wilson is a man upon whom there is no discount. A graduate of one of our best Colleges, a first class lawyer, a man of fine abilities, social qualities, and of the highest integrity, we feel proud of being his fellow citizen, and take great pleasure in recommending him to the people of this district and in soliciting their influence and votes in his behalf and in behalf of an honest administration of the government retrench ment and reform. With we are not personally acquainted, but from all we can learn of him as a lawyer, a friend, and a citizen he has few if any superiors in the district. He is a son of Dr. James Woods, who for many years was pastor of the Presbyterian congregation in Lewistown. We will speak more fully of Mr. Woods in our next issue. Suffice it to say at present that our conference did its work well and presented us a ticket, for which every Republican and honest man can work and vote.

DAVID W. WOODS, ESQ.,

Republicans of Centre, of this Senatorial District, let us close up the ranks. Let us once more rally around the old flag, and fight for the success of our entire ticket and the glorious principles of the Republican organization.

EXPLAIN IT.—Since the defeat of C. T. Alexander, by the Democratic Senatorial Conference, we have been asked by several Democra's to explain why Burns went back on Cyrus. For their benefit we will give the following explanation, or theory. Burns, as all Democrats know is a queer fish, and a very tricky politician, not caring much what party wins so, he is successful. He always makes success a point, no matter who he betrays, deceives, or sells out. We believe that he betrayed C. T. Alexander, that he digged a pit for Cyrus, and that said Cyrus fell into it much to the amusement of this hardened old political sinner. No person but Jim Burns would have been guilty of such a trick.

CHICAGO is fast losing its position as the headquarters of the traffic in wheat. The frauds and impositions of some of its leading dealers are making Milwaukee depot for the great staple of the West.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONFEREE CONVENTION.

BURNS BETRAYS C. T. ALEXANDER—DR. CRAWFORD AND R. B. PETRIKEN SUIT HIM BETTER. TROUBLE AMONG THE "WHITE MEN" AND NEGRO HATERS.

The Democratic Senatorial Conference met in Lewistown on Tuesday the 30th ult. Our Democratic friends from this county were there in force, with a hope of nominating the choice of the Democracy of Centre County. But all in vain. They might as well have remained at home. They were powerless. We might truthfully say they had no voice in the convention. It was universaly conceded that C. T. Alexander was the strongest and best man before the convention for the office of State Senator; but he stood no more chance among those old canal thieves than would a cat in Greenland without claws. Burns had promised him his support—he had promised to stand by him, and work for him and break things generally if he did not succeed. But what are Burns promises worth? He never intended to carry them out. He was really acting with the Juniata delegation from the first. Why he would deceive and betray our friend C. T. Alexander so badly, we cannot tell unless he discovered that he could not make a tool of him.

Certain it is that Centre county was ignored in that convention, and Dr. Crawford and R. B. Petriken nominated the first ballot. Everything was "set up," cut and dry before our Centre County Democrats arrived. Even the Resolutions drawn up and offered by John H. Orvis Esq., committing the party to the economical expenditure of the State finances and an honest and square policy, was voted down. For proof of this, see the Watchman of last week. That convention ignored Centre County and her claims. Ignored the resolutions, offered by Centre County men, pledging the Democrats of the District to an honest policy—to be honest once in their lives.

We have not space to go into particulars. Suffice it to say that our Democratic friends returned home, defeated, disgusted and dismayed, saying that the District was lost, forever lost, by the foolish and imbecile action of the delegates of the so-called White-mens-convention." There is trouble in the camp. The news of their nominations fell like a wet blanket upon the faithful. It inspires no enthusiasm, and is doomed to certain and ignominious defeat.

The Independent, a Democratic newspaper published in Mifflintown, Juniata County, refuses to run up Dr. Crawford's name, and speaks of his nomination, and the convention which nominated him, in the following language. Read it. It is Democratic testimony.

The Democratic Senatorial Conference of this district met yesterday at Lewistown, at the house of that old Jacksonian Democrat, Major Daniel Eisenbise—and such a conference was never held in the State of Pennsylvania. In numbers it was like a mass-meeting—in peace and harmony it was like an Irish funeral, and in hopeful nominations it was like a wet blanket on a sick patient. Great crowds attended the conference for the purpose of influencing, if possible, the conferees to make a ticket that would at once inspire high hopes of success—but in vain. The seven delegates of Crawford knew nothing, did nothing and could say nothing, but obey orders, they were appointed by him and for him, and to that point their duties ended. Twenty-five sterling Democrats, went up in a body from this county, and implored that convention not to organize for defeat—not to nominate Crawford that he was the candidate of a divided party at home, and could not receive its support. The Kepners, and Jacobs', the Koons; the Baldwins, of Perrysville, were there and said don't nominate Crawford. The Doughmans, Coders, Sulouffs, Parkers, Hornings, Howells, Dotys, Chamberlains, Reynolds, Maxwells, Sahms, Cox's, and many others were there, to say that the nomination of Crawford would damn any ticket that could be put up.

Blair county was represented by her best men—Everhart, McAlister, Traugh, Drs. Clark and Gemmill, Jack, Watson, Snyder, and many other prominent men were there to counsel and advise the nomination of a ticket certain of an election. They went home with heavy hearts—and when the ticket was announced—Crawford and Petriken—a gallant old soldier of Democracy, of Blair county, exclaimed, "Doomed! doomed to certain defeat, 1200 majority in Blair county for the Republicans!"

Centre county had come up to the conference with her best men—Col. Alexander, Orvis, Hoy, Foster, Reynolds, Meek, Weaver, Sützer and others, and their advice was laughed to scorn by men who are infatuated to destruction. Mifflin county was there with her best men—but of no use. Ross the candidate of Mifflin county was betrayed by some of his own conferees. A relation of Crawford's having forced himself on as his conferee—Ross at once abandoned hope of fair treatment in the conference—and he was not disappointed.

The Huntingdon county delegation (with a few honorable exceptions) excited towards themselves universal disgust. When the Juniata anti-Crawford delegation arrived some of the Petriken conferees and backers at once attacked them with cries of ticket scratchers and disorganizers, far outbellowing Watts and Greenleaf, of Juniata. Petriken himself was ashamed of his men. All the other candidates and their friends listened attentively to the protests of Juniata and with one voice said that he was a fool hardy man who would take a nomination in this district with such opposition. What right had the Huntingdon men to interfere with the Juniata delegation—it was none of theifight—and their impudent, insulting, behavior has damaged Petriken wonderfully in this county. Far better for him if Cornman and some others had staid at home—but we hope for Petriken's election—he is a good hearted, clever man, earnest and consistent democrat, an able lawyer and popular citizen. Sorry that he should be in such bad company.

Dr. David M. Crawford—the embodiment of obstinacy and conceit—on the Democratic ticket for Senate! We will hold that nomination under consideration for the present.

ALEXANDER BETRAYED—BURNS WINS.

We have nothing personal against C. T. Alexander. We think he is a very clever man, and a strong man in his own party. We do not like his politics and think as a politician he is a little sly.—But we cannot abstain from denouncing Burns for deceiving Mr. Alexander so outrageously. Burns found that sly, as Alexander might be he was too honest to suit his purposes, too honest to be made a tool of, so Mr. Burns, notwithstanding the pledges made and the combinations entered into before the meeting of the Democratic convention in this county, concluded to cut loose from Cyrus, and bind his hopes of plunder to Dr. Crawford and R. B. Petriken. Under these circumstances we think the defeat of C. T. Alexander is his own best vindication. But where does it place Burns Crawford and Petriken? What a trio! How Meekishly they look,

Three freight cars were thrown from the track of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad on Thursday morning at Busenbarck by a broken rail. But little loss sustained and the road was soon cleared.

THE ASSASSINS PLEA.

Kurtz of the Reporter had an Editorial in his issue of the 26th ult., headed "D. G. Bush" stating that "the Watchman of last week denies the story, lately circulated against D. G. Bush, that he offered, during the war, to head a mob against that office," and copies Meek's denial verbatum. By the reading thereof, it appears Meek in 1863 made this charge against D. G. Bush, Esq. No person payed any attention to it. It was considered ridiculous, as D. G. Bush was then as now, a Democrat and stood high with the party. This Meek could not bear, so he made the charge against D. G. Bush.

For four years the story rested, until Meek and Alexander combined, and determined that they, and they alone, should represent the county and district in the Assembly and Senate. This determined upon, they found that D. G. Bush was in their way, and so they set to work at once to travel the county and secretly resurrected the mobing story against Mr. Bush. The Editor of the Reporter notices this Meek and Alexander trick in the following remarks.

We regret that the above denial comes so late, and after the report referred to, was given circulation enough to defeat Mr. Bush's nomination, in this county, for Senator. It now becomes those persons who aided in giving this false report circulation to contradict it as often and industriously as was assisted in its spread. This is but simple justice to Mr. Bush as a Democrat and good citizen. The malignity with which a canvass is often carried on between rival candidates of the same party for nomination, is to be deprecated. The basest falsehoods are often circulated and the lowest tricks resorted to in order to injure a rival. The late contest for Senator, in our county, is no exception to these remarks, and we know that it has resulted in more injury than good to the party. The stories and falsehoods circulated before the nominations, are the best weapons the opposition can use afterwards against our ticket, as they have the weight of democratic authority. We hope that hereafter there will be less of this spirit, and we counsel the democracy hereafter to set their faces against any and every candidate who will engage in such work.

We give credit to Kurtz for this mark of his apparent honesty and boldness, declaring that it was this secret slander that defeated Mr. Bush's nomination, and that the denial comes too late. But Fred ought to know that it was Meek's design and plotted intention, that it should have that effect, and he succeeded admirably, securing his own, and Alexander's nomination, so far as this county was concerned, and now cries "stick to the ticket," because it is composed of the only Democrats who are "sharp, energetic and experienced," and therefore competent to represent them at Harrisburg next winter. The only men who "know the politicans who hang about that place" and that all others "must stand back for one year."

Meek knowing his treason to his country during the war of the rebellion, as well as every reader of his treasonable sheet, endeavors to cry persecution and from his malignant brain, hatches up the charge against Mr. Bush. Bush would have been justified in saying that the Watchman was the traitors mouthpiece, for so it was looked upon and considered by the patriotic and respectable portion of the Democrats of the county at that time. And those who were connected with him in the ownership of the Watchman denounced his traitorous conduct and disconnected themselves from the treasonable and disloyal soldier-abusing sheet, leaving Meek in his unenviable glory, and like Benedict Arnold, he has done his best to sell them to the enemies of his country.

But now we must ask the question, will Kurtz and the Democrats of Pennsvalley vote for Meek, after this expose of Meek's treachery by Kurtz, when they know that such tricks as Meek has played in this case to obtain the nomination, as Kurtz says, "has resulted in more injury than good to the party?" How can the Democrats of Centre support Meek when Kurtz, the Editor of the Reporter "counsels the Democracy to set their faces against any and every candidate who will engage in such work?" Knowing Meek's record as they know it, will the Democrats of Pennsvalley support him? Will—they vote against Meek, or will they—we mean the respectable portion of the Democracy, vote for him and thus make his treasonable record their own, thus disgracing themselves, their children and their county. Time will tell.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

The following resolutions were offered by John H. Orvis, Esq., in the Senatorial Conference which recently met in Lewistown and nominated Crawford and Petriken. They were voted down the vote standing 7 for, 11 against.

Whereas, We believe with Jefferson, that "a wise and frugal government which restrains men from injuring each other, but leaves them otherwise free to pursue their own ideas of industry and improvement, and does not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned" is the sum total of a good government," and therefore the establishing a system of internal improvements by, and at the expense of the State is contrary to the fundamental idea of a free government, and can only be excused in the earlier history of a community, when capital is not sufficiently aggregate to enable such improvements to be conducted by individual or corporate enterprise, which period has long since passed in the history of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, The people of this Commonwealth in 1857, by solemn constitutional enactment, provided for the establishment of a Sinking Fund which should consist in part of the net annual income of the public works owned by the State and the proceeds of the sale of such public works; and further provided that no part of said Sinking Fund should be used or applied otherwise than to the extinguishment of the public debt as long as such debt exceeded five millions of dollars; and at the same time prohibited the State loaning its credit to any individual, company, corporation or association, or becoming a joint owner or stock holder in any company, association or corporation; and also prohibiting the State assuming any portion of the debt of any municipal or other corporation or association, unless the same was created for the public defence in time of war; and also took from the Legislature the power to authorize any municipal corporation to become a stock holder in, or loan its credit to, any corporation, association or institution:—Therefore be it resolved,

1st. That we are in favor of maintaining inviolate the principles thus incorporated into the constitution of Pennsylvania, and of preserving with sacred fidelity the faith of the State thus solemnly pledged to our public creditors.

2nd. That we are in favor of preserving the securities now in the Sinking Fund, arising from the sale of the public works, and such as have already been substituted therefor, in their present form and securities, both principal and interest shall be paid according to the tenor and effect of the obligations, and that the proceeds thereof shall be honestly appropriated to the payment of the public debt.

3rd. That we denounce all schemes by which the securities now in the Sinking Fund, are to be diverted to any other use, loaned to any corporation, or exchanged for the obligations of any other corporations, or in any other manner tampered with, as a violation of the spirit of the constitutional provisions above recited, a breach of public faith, and part and parcel of a scheme of gigantic corruption and public robbery.

4th. That it is the duty of the candidates this day nominated by the Democracy of the 21st Senatorial district of Penn. to give pledge to support and maintain throughout their Senatorial term, the principles and policy enunciated in the foregoing preamble and resolutions.

At Rochester N. Y., on the morning of the 30th ult., in South Water street an embankment of earth caved in, burying a number of workmen, three of whom were killed, viz: Thomas Foley, Thomas Mulwheeny, and Lewis Marsh. The first name came here yesterday from Canandaigua. The other two lived in this city. John Develyn had a leg broken, and Thomas O'Keefe had his hip crushed.

THE FRANCE—PRUSSIAN WAR.

THE SURRENDER OF MACMAHON'S ARMY.
Cable Special to Herald.

LONDON, September 3.—A dispatch from Sedan via Bouillon, September 2, midnight, says the die is cast so far as MacMahon's army and fortunes of the empire are concerned. All is over with France. I have already telegraphed briefly facts of battles on Tuesday and Wednesday, each day's fighting being terrific. The results at the close of each day were favorable to the Prussians. Thursday at daylight showed the French forces reinforced and occupying a strong elevated position from Baziller extending down the railroad to Douzy, and thence to Nancy on the line of the Mouson Railroad. At five o'clock the Prussians recommenced the battle, making a simultaneous attack on the French front and left flank. The fighting was at first confined to the artillery, both armies firing incessantly, the French evidently having a weaker force of guns than the Prussians. At noon a fierce attack was made by the Prussians infantry at Danzy, with the object of weakening the French center, but, after tremendous fighting, the Prussians fell back. A pause seemed to take place at one o'clock, the firing being less incessant, but was only a prelude of yet fiercer assaults. At two o'clock a simultaneous movement was made along the whole Prussian line, the infantry charging on the French guns.

At three o'clock the French lines, which had been previously firm, wavered, and immediately thereafter broke. The battle then became a rout. MacMahon is reported seriously wounded. The roads now present a terrible aspect. The French left everything, flying in every direction and throwing their arms. The Prussians pressed forward, bent upon cutting off their retreat toward Belgium. The Prussian troops used the bayonet with terrible effect. Night closed on the route and pursuit, leaving the Prussians gathering in large numbers around Sedan. The Emperor remained at Sedan throughout the battle.

At half-past two o'clock a message was sent to the Emperor at his headquarters, advising him to fly to Belgium, but he was too ill to undertake the journey.

This morning the Prussians prepared to attack Sedan, which was not in condition to resist. At twelve o'clock a party of officers, headed by General Winappfen, left Sedan, bearing a flag of truce. It was received by the advanced guard and conducted to the Prussian headquarters, where the General formally surrendered the French army and fortress to King William. The French army also bore a letter from the Emperor Napoleon to King William, stating that he desired to surrender himself, not having any command. The formal capitulation took place at half-past one o'clock. It is said the Emperor will be sent under a strong escort to Madgeburg, but his destination is a secret. A large number of French escaped into Belgium.

BLOODY BATTLES.

LONDON, September 3—The New York Tribune's special correspondent telegraphs from Thionville this morning that two battles were fought yesterday. They were bloody but decisive. They began at five o'clock in the morning and lasted until three P. M. MacMahon was repulsed. The Prussians made an attack, firing incessantly and furiously until half past three o'clock, when the firing ceased, and the Prussians attacked with hancock. MacMahon was driven across the Meuse, en route, it is believed, for Sedan.

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND FRENCH CAPTURED.

At seven o'clock in the morning of September 2d, MacMahons whole army, comprising one hundred thousand prisoners, capitulated with MacMahon. The Prussians had two hundred and forty thousand men engaged or in reserve. The French had one hundred and twenty thousand.

REPUBLIC IS TO BE PROCLAIMED

and the present committee of defence constituted a provisional government. Gen. Trochu is rumored as the probable President of the Republic. Great dissatisfaction is expressed at the meagreness and insufficiency of official bulletins regarding events transpiring in the field.

SUNDAY IN PARIS—RIOTOUS DEMONSTRATIONS—RUMORED DEATH OF MACMAHON.

PARIS, September 4, noon—An enormous crowd is now about the Corps Legislatif building, where the Deputies are to meet at one o'clock. Military precautions to preserve order are taken on a large scale; though the people do not seem inclined to rioting, they are much excited. The mass of the people from all parts of the city are going towards Legislatif buildings shouting "A La Chambre Decheance," &c. Thousands among these are members of the National Guards, who, without arms, join in the shouting and urge all they meet to go to the Legislatif building. It is hoped the measures taken will secure quiet.

It is reported that MacMahon is dead.

PARIS, September 4, 2 P. M.—Early this afternoon the crowd met a squad of police. They shouted, "Viva la Republique!" Those of the police who did respond were immediately disarmed, and their swords broken. They were then allowed to go unarmed and unharmed.

The boulevards are almost impassable on account of the crowds of people. The national guard has succeeded in preserving order so far. In one of the streets a large crowd, upon the point of tearing down a representation of the American eagle, ascertained their mistake and shouted loudly, "Vive la Republique Americana!" The police are no longer to be seen in the streets.

FUTURE RESIDENCE OF NAPOLEON.

An interview has taken place between Napoleon and the King of Prussia for the purpose of deciding upon the future residence of the Emperor. One of the German fortresses was fixed on, probably Mayence.

PROCLAMATION OF THE REPUBLIC OF FRANCE.

PARIS, September 5.—[Official.] The following proclamation has been issued by the new government:

Republique Francaise: Ministere De L'Interieur:

The decheance has been pronounced in the Corps Legislatif. The Republic has been proclaimed. At the Hotel De Ville a government of national defense, composed of eleven members and all the deputies of Paris, has been constituted and ratified by popular acclamation. Ten years ago, Burnside & Thomas introduced to the public, Lester Bro's Superior Warranted Water Proof Boots and Shoes. At the present time they are more popular, and command a larger sale than ever before. Their popularity is not confined to this county alone. Other counties knowing their superiority over all other Boots &Shoes are acknowledging and appreciating their Water-proof qualities. Their fame has never been equalled by any other Boots & Shoes in the market. The very best qualities of Groceries and pure and unadulterated Spices are kept by this firm, and the highest market prices paid for all kinds of country produce. CENSUS.—The Deputy Marshal for the Milesburg district—Col. C. L. Greeno, has completed his work and sent in his report to the census office. We understand that he is not yet at liberty to give the population or the particulars relating to the business interests of his district.

Col. Greeno is a first class man, and has made a most excellent officer. Mr. Armstrong made no mistake when he recommended Mr. Greeno for this position. Neither he nor his friends will ever have cause to regret it.

ALMOST A MURDER.—At the Milesburg Camp meeting, on Sunday last, between the hours of three and four o'clock, p. m., an attack was made upon a man, by the name of Thomas D. Wrick, by some four or five individuals whose names we have not learned. They knocked Mr. Werick down with a stone, which was thrown by one of the party. He was then struck with a "Billy" and kicked and beaten in a most fearful manner. At this writing, Monday morning, the report is, he is still alive, but in a very dangerous condition.

ADJOURNED.—The public sale of Mrs. Gahagan, on Saturday last, was very well attended and things sold reasonably well. But all was not sold. The sale closed leaving the following articles unsold, which she now offers at private sale upon the same conditions as those sold at the vendue: 1 elegant sofa, 1 cook stove, anti dust, almost new, 1 large mirror, 1 parlor stove, 1 mantle clock, 2 new tubs, 1 good table, 1 bedstead, some chairs and a variety of other articles. The above articles will be sold at private sale if called for this week or the beginning of next.

Y. M. C. A.—A preliminary meeting has been called at the rooms of the Young Mens Christian Association of this place, to meet on Friday, the 9th inst., for the purpose of considering the propriety of forming a social singing association, for improvement in singing and the development of social feeling. A cordial invitation has been extended to all who sympathize in the movement—ladies as well as gentlemen, to attend. We hope to see the movement a success.

The Young Men's Christian Association hold a prayer meeting every Saturday evening, which should be largely attended.

EVERY SATURDAY for September 10 is one of the handsomest Illustrated Papers ever issued. It contains European War Pictures—the Baden Prisoners taken at Niederbrom; French Soldiers bathing at Nancy; A Prussian Outpost; Saarbruck; and Some Recruits for the South German Army. It has, besides, fine portraits of Mademoiselle Sessi and Geo. W. Childs of the Philadelphia Ledger; a beautiful art picture, Morning in the Desert; and three admirable summer pictures,—A Pic-nic in the Woods, by A. Hoppin; Summer Days, by W. J. Hennessy; and On the Beach at Long Branch, by C. G. Bush.

Its Literary contents comprise able and very interesting Editorials on The Balance of Power, An Empire's Bull Run, On the Uncertainty of Things, A Desirable Calamity, etc. It has a full summary of Home and Foreign News, two additional chapters of "The Mystery of Edwin Drood," a sketch of Geo. W. Childs by Jas. Parton and other fresh and readable articles. Altogether, it is a remarkable number of this first-class family Illustrated Weekly.

SCHOOL Books an endless stock, and cheap at Rankin's.

A FEMALE ESCOUNTER.—There was an indignation meeting at the depot after the coming of the Bellefonte train on last Wednesday, the parties participant being a married woman of Lock Haven and a young woman from Centre county (Bellefonte, we believe.) The story goes that this young woman, said to move in respectable society, wrote to this married woman's husband to meet her at the depot. The letter got into the wrong hands—the man's wife got it instead of him. She kept mum and asked him to accompany her to the depot. The unsuspecting innocent obligingly went, of course. When he got there his "better half," who, like old Mrs. O'Shanter, had been "nursing her wrath to keep it warm," saw the would-be seducer of her darling husband and "went for" her. After a short, sharp and decisive encounter, in which Centre county got well thumped and thrashed, Lock Haven hauled off and victoriously left the ground. Query: If the victor hasn't spent her wrath, wouldn't it serve her husband right to give him the residue at a chosen hour in the evening when the licks fall hardest and come nearest the skin?—Clinton Democrat.

How true it is, that we must go from home to get the news. At least it would seem to be so in this case. The Clinton Democrat may tell the truth. We cannot contradict or confirm the story. It may be true. We are inclined to think it is false. One thing we do know that the morals of Bellefonte are good, and it always takes a male or female individual from Lock Haven or Tyrone, to get up a rowin our midst. We suggest that a few missionaries be sent to these towns.

THE L. C. & S. C. R. R.

We have written so much in favor of this great Penns Valley enterprise, that we scarcely know what to add. We have written railroad and talked railroad until with us the subject is worn thread bare. We know of no argument in favor of the completion of this great enterprise, which we have not already used. We have exhorted the people of Penns Valley to work earnestly for, and subscribe liberally to this important work until we are almost ashamed to write another line, or expostulate further with them on the subject. We know that the intelligent people along the line of this projected road, realize fully the situation, and understand, perfectly, the great advantage the speedy completion of the road will be to them. They know that it will take money to build the road, and they know too, that the money necessary to grade the road must be raised by the people living along the line, and by the whole people of Penns Valley, Bellefonte and Centre County. Money and honest energetic work, union of effort and the burying of all selfish interests, will build the road. This and this alone on the part of our people will do it. We are assured that the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., will carry out their pledges in good faith, so that if the road is not built the fault will be with the people. For the benefit of the friends of the road we print the following letter in answer to one written by Edmund Blanchard, Esq.

LEWISBURG, August 29th, 2870.

EDMUND BLANCHARD, Esq.

DEAR SIR:—Yours of the 26th inst., just handed me. I presume Mr. Leaffer might see if he could find a better line through Penns Valley, but we cannot afford to spend so much time and money in making new explorations, and, besides until returns are made from the various townships in Penns Valley, no Engineers will be sent there by our company for any purpose. Mr. Duncan has made returns of books and guarantees for his township, but none of the others have, though I have written them requesting it. If the location is not made, and work put under contract this fall it is their own fault. I am satisfied from recent developments that the amount they proposed to subscribe and guarantee will not grade the road through there townships. Still if they would come up to their promise without further delay, a start would be made, and, it would be put through.

Yours Truly, G. F. MILLER.

People of Penns Valley read the above letter. You will see by it, that the responsibility now rests with you. If you really want the road, if you are in earnest in the efforts you have been making; if you would enhance the value of your lands and double your wealth, you must arouse yourselves, renew your energy and your efforts, fill up your subscriptions and send in your bonds without further delay. The following letter addressed to R. H. Duncan, Esq., is confirmatory of all we have said in regard to this matter.

LEWISBURG, August 30th 1870.

R. H. DUNCAN, Esq.

MY DEAR SIR:—Your township is the only one that has yet made any return. No arrangements will be made until stock books and guarantees are sent in. We are at work in Union County. If the work is not located &c., this fall, it will be the fault of your county. Yours Truly,

G. F. MILLER.

This is news to us. We had thought from what we read in the Watchman and Reporter, that the money was all subscribed or guaranteed. From Mr. Millers letter to Mr. Duncan we learn otherwise. From it we learn that Gregg township "is the only one that has yet made any return." What, we ask, are the people of Ferguson, Harris, Potter, Penn, Haines and Miles doing? Farmers of these wealthy townships why are you so far behind Gregg? Why are you behind at all? Why have you not filled up your "stock books" and sent in your "guarantees j"

Why not go to work at once to comply with the requisitions of the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., and have your road put under contract at once? If it is necessary call another series of meetings in every township along the line. Once more remind the people of the great advantages to them, of this road. Plead with them, implore, exhort entreat, in a manner more earnest than has yet been done. Work day and night, work incessantly. Friends of the road, subscribe all you can yourselves, and thus convince your neighbors that you are in earnest, desperately in earnest, and our word for it, you will succeed. Succeed in building your road from one end of the valley to the other. What a glorious era will dawn upon Penns Valley when this road is finished? What an increase of wealth will come with the first shrill whistle of the Locomotive! Glorious day may it come and that right speedily.

For the REPUBLICAN.

BOALSBURG, Sept. 2nd, 1870.

COL. W. W. BROWN:

I have noticed in the last few numbers of the Watchman, articles condemning the people of Harris township, on the Railroad question; but the last weeks paper came to us with an editorial stating that all the townships along the intended line were nearly ready, or up with their stock. Harris township was made an exception, and we, said to be in favor of the road only conditionally. The editor says, Harris township is an exception, I do not quote his exact words, and that there are a few men in Boalsburg who for selfish interests would sacrifice the road. This is not true Mr. Meek. I, as a citizen of Boalsburg, deny that there is any foundation for your assertion. I can assure Mr. Meek that the citizens of Boalsburg are much more warmly attached to this railroad enterprise than he is, or the men from whom he gets his information.

Will Mr. Meek please answer for the benefit of the people of Boalsburg and Harris township, whether Haines, Penn, Potter and Ferguson townships have raised their full amount of stock, and sent in their bonds of guarantee? Will you Mr. Meek, at the same time answer whether Union county, outside of Mifflinburg, has raised her stock or any considerable portion of it, or whether there is even a stock book opened for the reception of subscriptions? Has the Borough of Lewisburg, the home of the President, completed her subscription and sent in her guarantees? I say she has not, and yet Mr. Miller the President, urges Centre county to send in her Bonds, while he permits Union county to remain idle.

Mr. Meek, I want you to answer these questions. When you have done so and informed us that all the other townships except Harris have closed their books and sent in their guarantees, old Harris will be up to time. She will not be behind I can assure you.

But you say a few self interested men in Boalsburg take conditional stock. Why Meek, do you not know that Ferguson tp., is all conditional; Pennsylvania Furnace, Tyrone, Spruce Creek and Warriormark have all made their subscriptions conditional. Was not the subscription of Mifflinburg conditional? And have not some of the Directors of the road made their subscriptions of stock conditional? I think, indeed, I know I am right in these assertions. When you do not understand a subject Mr. Meek, you should not attempt to write upon it. By obeying this rule you would save yourself trouble and not expose your ignorance.

As for Boalsburg we ask nothing but the rout, with which we started out. We want no foul play, for self, or individual interests as some now do in other tp. We stand by the original contract in good faith and go for the greatest good to the greatest number, and for the shortest and cheapest rout, Let the Engineers locate the road and in ten days the stock will all be taken. Then every man will know what he is doing, and there will be no room Mr. Meek, for you or any one else to make your charges of self interest against any person.

Go to work Mr. Meek, and show that you are of some use to the people of this valley, by securing the location of the road without delay and cease your abuse of, and strictures upon, the good people of Harris twp.

BOALSBURG.

NOW YOU SEE IT, NOW YOU DON'T.

Meek's Coolie of the Reporter, is like the frenchmans flee, when you put your finger upon him, he is not there, by gar! One week, it appears, that Fred is struck with a semblance of political honesty, and out he comes in the Ring's Reporter, and exposes Meek's duplicity and treacherous conduct to defeat the nomination of D. G. Bush for Senator, affirming that only for Meek's contemptible slander, Mr. Bush would have received the nomination, and calls upon the Democrats everywhere in the county to put their face against any and every one guilty of Meek's conduct in procuring his nomination, by villifying and slandering Mr. Bush. Declaring, at the same time, that such schemes injure the Democratic party. Now you see him. Now you don't.

Last week he turns his coat again and we find him giving utterance to the following "A Democrat scratch Meek and vote for Duncan! There is none such to be found; there is no cause for it." If this be true, then, Fred is as great a slanderer as Meek or Bush. Are we not right? Honest Democrat, can you point out the difference?

We pity Kurtz. We cannot help it. We hope our readers will pardon our sympathy. The poor devil is to be pitied more than blamed. His masters will not let him serve the people—the best interests of the party. If he has the manhood to publish anything against them one week, he is compelled to cower and cringe the next, take it all back and thus expose his servility, and father a falsehood.

Meek has transfered his claims for office to his Coolie Fred, who must print what his master—Meek commands. And knowing that R. H. Duncan has spent time and money in behalf of the great Rail Road enterprise of the county, the Coolie says, "We admit that Mr. Duncan has done a great deal for our projected Railroad, and we give him the full measure of credit for it," but does he not at the same time follow his master and exclaim "stick to the ticket and vote for Meek?

Will the Coolie tell his readers what Meek has done for the L. C. & S. C. R. R., previous to his nomination? And will you, Fred, tell your readers, why you assert with such unblushing effrontery, believing, as you must do to make such silly assertions, in the ignorance of your people and of the Democratic party, "that there is no Legislation whatever needed for the Rail Road next winter?"

Why do you thus stultify yourself to cover Meek's political profligacy, which you have already denounced as destroying the Democratic party? Why do you denounce the conduct of Meek one week, and the next week cry out most noble Meek and potent master? All Hail! Why do you admit that Mr. Duncan has done a great deal for the rail road, and hurrah for Meek who has done nothing for the road, if you are honest and really in earnest for the success of the enterprise? Why do you resort to downright lying, and a mean deceiving of the friends of that road by declaring that no legislation is necessary, or will be needed next winter? How do you know that no legislation will be needed next winter? How do the friends of the Road know that no legislation will be needed? And do you not know, and do the people not know that it is better to trust a friend than an enemy for any favor? Oh! Kurtz why do you not be honest, consistant? Why so changeable? Now you see it. Now you don't. People of Penns Valley be on your guard.

Hartzler, about half a mile south of Belleville, was found dead on Tuesday of last week, in the field where he was engaged in spreading manure. He was aged about 55 years, served as a soldier during the rebellion, was generally known as Dutch John, and no doubt died from heart disease.

.....Johnnie Wyrough, employed in the Sun office, yesterday, while feeding our press, got the second finger of his left hand, under one of the nippers, and had the end of it severely smashed. Dr. Findly dressed the wound, and Johnnie is getting along as well as could be expected.

"FOR YOUNG MEN AND YOUNG WOMEN."—The "Young Folks Rural" is the novel title of the new Rural and Literary Monthly being issued by H. N. P. Lewis, the publisher of the Western Rural, at Chicago. Prizes are offered for stories and contributions on various subjects by young writers, and fine premiums for clubs of subscribers. Terms, $1,00 per year. The first 500 subscribers are to be credited for two years.—We think this paper must excite a great interest among the young men and young women throughout the United States. Address H. N. P. LEWIS, Publisher, Chicago.

CHEMISTRY is furnishing us new agents for fuel, force, food and many other important aids over those we once possessed. Ports from which commerce was driven during the hot months by their terrible fevers are visited all the year with impunity now. Many localities in the South and West kept tenantless by their deleterious miasmas are now filling up with populations under the protection of Ayer's Ague Cure. Their afflicting Chills and Fever are so effectually cured by this remedy that the disease no longer turns emigration aside or destroys the settler if he ventures upon its infected districts. LIFE INSURANCE, when brought within the means of the masses, is the kind of insurance that works a real good. The poor, hardworking man, who has a large or a small family to support, must feel keenly the responsibility of his position, when soberly thinking of the future To the honest father the thought of the future support of his wife and children is ever uppermost in his mind. It is this that stimulates him to action, that nerves his arm to work with a will, toiling day and night, and often overtaxing himself in the hope of securing a competence, and thus to provide for those he loves when his protecting arm ceases to work for them. He would gladly avail himself of Life Insurance for their protection but as conducted he could not, for fear he would not be able to keep up the payments of premium required, under the old system.

This we think of the HOMESTEAD LIFE, of Philadelphia, whose advertisement appears in this paper, has most effectually remedied by their system of monthly payment of premiums on all policies they issue, thus placing the great blessing of Life Insurance within the reach of all, however moderate their circumstances, at a cost so small that cannot possibly be felt. The Company is organized by the representatives of a large manufactury establishments in this State in the interests of the workingmen, fully appreciating the necessity of such means to enable the mechanics of Pennsylvania to provide for their families future, as only the rich or those in better circumstances could afford to do in the past. We bespeak for the Homestead Life the confidence and the patronage of the working man, and a large and prosperous business.

From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!!

The Bellefonte REPUBLICAN and the "American Agriculturist."

We are now prepared to offer the people of Centre county, a Great Bargain for the coming year. It is this: To every subscriber who will send us $3.00 in advance, we will send the

BELLEFONTE "REPUBLICAN,"

and the

'AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST,'

for one year. Of the REPUBLICAN we need not speak at present.

The American Agriculturist is a work that no farmer nor housekeeper should be without. As a farm-journal we think it has no superior in the world—certainly none in the United States. It is issued monthly, and the subscription price is $1.50 per annum. By clubing with the REPUBLICAN you save fifty cents, and secure more good reading matter than you can obtain in any other way for the same money.

We hope the reading public will avail themselves of this very liberal offer.

How To Prepare Mortar.

Though many of the accidents which are constantly taking place from the weakness in construction of our buildings, are rightly attributed to faults in the original plan, and the incompetency of the architect, it not unfrequently happens that a large portion of the blame should be placed upon the builder having the immediate charge of the work, and under whose supervision are conducted those minor details in construction upon which depends, to so great an extent the stability of the whole. Upon the quality of the mortar used in construction depends, in no slight degree, the strength of the walls; and regarding the best method of mixing mortar, it is proposed in this article to offer a few suggestions.

The plan to be adopted which, in the estimation of the writer, is at once the most thorough and the most economical, is as follows:

Three boxes are first constructed, the first box being higher than the second, and the second box higher than the third. These boxes are connected by passages, at which are placed screens, such as are ordinarily used in mortar-making. Into the first box is put lime for slacking, and there mixed with water and manipulated until it is about the consistency of cream; after which it is allowed to run through the screen into the second box. It should be premised that, while the process is conducting, boards are placed over the screens and removed only when it is desired to unite the contents of different boxes. After the lime has been admitted to the second box, unscreened sand is thrown into the box in quantity deemed sufficient to make the mortar. The sand and lime, thus mixed, are then run through the screen into the third box or mortar bed, and there allowed to stand for twenty four hours, when the mortar becomes fit for use, and requires no further tempering or mixing before its application.

The advantages of the above method are very apparent. In the first place, about one-fourth less lime is required than in mortar made in the usual way, and the mortar is more thoroughly mixed and, therefore, much better than that dealt with by the common process. Again, since the different boxes are separated by screens, the preliminary labor of screening is entirely avoided, all the lumps of unslacked lime being retained in the first box, and all gravel and foreign matter in the sand are retained, in a similar manner, in the second box.—After the mixture is finally run into the mortar bed, all the refuse matter remaining in the first and second box can be shoveled out, and the boxes made ready for a repetition of the process. While the mortar is running into the third box, lime can again be slacking in the first box, without loss of time, until the mortar-bed is filled. The bed can be made of any dimensions to hold the mortar required in construction of a large building. In regard to the quality of the mortar made by the above process there can exist little doubt. It is more easily applied, more durable, and better adapted for all kinds of work than that made in the usual way. The writer has followed the system for many years, and has continually greater reason to be satisfied with its superiority.—Condensed from the American Builder.

SALT FOR WHEAT FIELDS.—On this subject Prof Whitney says:

"No reliance can be placed beforehand on the action of salt in any given case, or for any given crop, for the reason that its operation may depend upon any one of a dozen different causes. If there is a deficiency of soda in the soil, salt may supply it; the decomposition of the salt may, by liberating one of its components, chlorine, hasten the germination of the seed, this element being believed to have this effect specifically; or the salt dissolving in the soil may, as is known to be frequently the case, help the solution of insoluble phosphates. The ash of wheat kernels contain nearly 4 per cent, of soda, the ash of the straw nearly 2½ per cent and that of the chaff more than 11 per cent. It is likely, therefore, that salt will prove beneficial to wheat, but this can only be found by actually applying it to a piece of ground and watching the result."

MAKE THE SOIL FERTILE.—The great principle of making the soil fertile is to give back to it what we receive from it. This the Chinese do, and their soil continues of unsurpassed fertility. Saxony and Nassau, in Germany, have adopted the same practice, and the produce of their soil has doubled within the last fifteen years. We have soils that will yield good crops for a few years without manure, or clover or rotation of crops, but the end will be that it will not pay for croping. A good farmer's farm should constantly be increasing in value and fertility so that good crops, whether of grain, hay, potatoes, or other articles shall be a most reasonable certainty.

We praise him for his cross;
All the charms that sin can offer,
For him we must but loss.

None but Jesus, none but Jesus,
Shall have our hearts best love;
He will lead us home to glory—
His own bright home above.

DISMISSAL HYMN.

Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing,
Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
Let us each, thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace;
O refresh us,
Traveling through this wilderness,

Thanks we give and adoration,
For thy gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May thy presence,
With us, evermore be found.

So, when e'er the signal's given,
Us from earth to call away;
Borne on angel's wings to heaven,
Glad to leave our cumbrous clay,
May we ready,
Rise and reign in endless day.

SAFE WITHIN THE VALE.

Come and sing with joy and gladness,
Elevate your hearts in praise;
Come, dismiss all gloom and sadness,
High your songs exulting raise.

CHORUS.—Rocks and storms I'll fear no more,
When on that eternal shore;
Drop the anchor, furl the sail,
I amsafe within the vale.

With the angel choirs uniting,
Sing of Jesus' wondrous love;
'Tis a subject so delighting,
Thrilling all the harps above.

Chorus,

Come, and sweetly tune your voices,
Raise them to a lofty strain;
Sing aloud, while heaven rejoices,
Shout, for Jesus comes to reign.

Chorus,

Glory, hear the angels crying,
Glory to the Savior's name;
Shall not children, with them rising,
Here on earth, his praise proclaim.

CHORUS.

B. B. PITCHER.—The following description of a base ball pitcher in action will be appreciated by all who have watched this important member of the nine: "On receiving the ball he raises it in both hands until it is on a level with his left eye. Striking an attitude, he gazes at it two or three minutes in a contemplative way, and then turns it around once or twice to be sure that it is not an orange or a cocoanut. Assured that he has the genuine article, he then winks once at the first baseman, twice at second baseman, and three times at the third baseman; and after a scowl at the short stop and a glance at the home plate, finally delivers the ball with the precision and rapidity of a cannon shot."

On the 16th inst. the Republicans of Mifflin county nominated for Congress D. J. Morrel; Senate, D. W. Woods; Assembly, J. F. McCoy; Commissioner, Miles Haffler; Poor Directors, Moses Miller, J. D. Barr; Jury Commissioner, John Hoyt.—The Convention was largely attended and the proceedings were harmonious.

A plasterer and his boy being employed to whitewash a house by the day, were so tedious that the owner asked the lad, in his master's absence, when he thought they would be done. The boy bluntly replied that "his master was out looking for another job, and if he found one they should make an end that week."

It is stated that the advocates of female suffrage in Massachusetts will lend their support to Wendell Phillips, so that if the Labor Reform Party also take him up he will have "three strings to his bow." There is some talk of a canvass of the State by Mrs Livermore, Mrs. Howe and Mrs. Lucy Stone in behalf of Mr. Philips.

The Democrats of Susquehanna county have placed in the field the following ticket: For Congress, J. B. McCollum; for President Judge, Geo. W. Woodward; for Assembly, C. M. Gere; Prothonotary, Wm. J. Parke; Commissioner, James O. Bullard, and for Auditor, Milton Griffin.

The St. Louis Times (Democratic) unkindly remarks: "It is to be hoped that the Oregon Democracy will have sense enough not to put forward the venerable Joe Lane for the United States Senatorship. That's a lane which ought to have been turned down long ago."

AN old farmer said to his sons: "Boys, don't you ever spekerlate, or wait for sunthin to turn up. You might jest as well go an sit down on a stone in the middle of a medder, with a pail atwixt your legs, an' wait fur a cow to back up to you to be milked.

BAKED SOUR APPLES.—Wash well the apples; place them in a pan; pour in a teacupfull of water and one of sugar, bake them slowly till done.—Eat them with cream and the juice which cooks them.

A shoddy young lady surprised her mother on returning from a dance by saying that she enjoyed the "hugging set to music most bully." She had reference to Waltzing, and why isn't that a good name for it?

"Ah, my dear fellow," said an old man once to a friend, "I am quite weak and broken down with age. I used to walk entirely round the park every day; but now I can only walk half-way round and back again."

THERE is a lake in Minnesota called Minnetonka, which must be very clear and very deep, for a strange genius, in describing it, says, by looking into it you can see them making tea in China.

"PATRICK, if Mr. Jones comes before my return, tell him that I will meet him at two o'clock, precisely."

"Ay, ay, sir; but what shall I tell him if he don't come?"

To prevent a dog from becoming mad give him half ounce strychnine every hour until he ceases to growl. The remedy is a sure one.

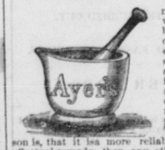
Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

For all the the Purpose of a Laxative medicine.



Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative PILL.—The obvious reason is, that it is more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them: those who have not, knows that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterous drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal vicera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions from the stomach' bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Langnor and loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or GREEN SICKNESS, BILLIOUS COLIC and BILLIOUS FEVERS, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back or Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

DR. PIERCE'S ALT. EXT. OR GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

This is the most thorough blood purher yet discovered, and cures all humors from the worst Scrofula to a common *Eruption. MANHOOD

In the Young and Rising Generation.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lackluster eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the check with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so facinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.
